

ICELAND DÉCOR PHOTOS

Pricelist May 15th 2008

The photos on this web site are obtainable in whatever size you may need as plain pictures or framed according to your specifications.

Photos for publishing are supplied as digital files with limited permission for publication according to the copyright law and at prices commonly accepted on your market. In case of a larger number of pictures you may apply for a special deal. Handling & transfer charges are always added to the copyright fee.

On this site only a small portion of the total 300.000 photos of the archives are presented. If you do not hit what you are searching for, just send an inquiry and it will be responded to with samples on the net and/or entering the particular picture(s) on the web after scanning, digital preparation and editing.

You may order on the internet at mats@mats.is specifying all that matters such as photo no, title, size (and special cropping if necessary), whether you want the photo framed and so on. Photos are made especially for you, and hence they can not be changed for other photos. We use colours and paper of highest quality available to ensure your utmost satisfaction.
